The Undertaker is an American professional wrestler born on March 24, 1965, in Houston, Texas. He has three siblings and was married to Jodi Lynn from 1989 to 1999, Sara Calaway from 2000 to 2007, and Michelle McCool in 2010. The Undertaker debuted in 1984 and appeared in films such as Suburban Commando and TV shows like Poltergeist: The Legacy. He stands at 6 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 136 kg. Mark Calaway, better known as The Undertaker, is a retired professional wrestler born under the sun sign of Aries in Houston, Texas. He attended Waltrip High School and later enrolled at Angelina College before transferring to Texas Wesleyan University, where he studied sports management and played basketball. However, Calaway decided to pursue a career in professional wrestling instead. The Undertaker began his wrestling career in 1984 under the ring name Texas Red but soon adopted the persona of Kane the Undertaker in WWF Superstars on November 19, 1990. He went on to become one of the most successful wrestlers in WWE history, holding the record for 21 consecutive wins and winning multiple championships, including eight World Wrestling Championships and three World Heavyweight Championships. In his personal life, Calaway has been married twice, first to Jodi Lynn from 1989 to 1999, with whom he has a son named Gunner Vincent, and then to Sara Calaway from 1999 to 2007. He is currently married to Michelle McCool, with whom he has two daughters, Chasey and Gracie. The Undertaker stands at an impressive 6 ft 8 in tall and weighs around 304 lbs, with a distinctive appearance that includes red hair, green eyes, and tattoos. The Undertaker's Career and Personal Life The Undertaker, whose real name is Mark Calaway, has had a storied career in professional wrestling. Born on March 24, 1965, he first stepped into the ring as The Master of Pain on February 2, 1989. He has held various championships throughout his career, including the WWF Championship, which he won after defeating Hulk Hogan. The Undertaker was also selected as the best WWE wrestler ever by Digital Spy in 2003. Not only is he a skilled wrestler, but he's also an actor, having appeared in the horror TV series Poltergeist: The Legacy and several UFC events. He's a fan of mixed martial arts and has trained in Brazilian jiu-jitsu. In addition to his wrestling career, Mark is involved in various charitable endeavors. He co-founded the Zeus Compton Calaway Save the Animals Fund with his ex-wife Sara to help support lifesaving treatments for large-breed dogs. The Undertaker made a significant impact on WWE's history, featuring on 61 pay-per-view posters until 2015. He was the first wrestler without a last name in WWE history to win a World Championship title and has been included in various video games, including WWE 2k14. Despite announcing his retirement in June 2020, The Undertaker made one final appearance at the Survivor Series event later that year.
